

Annex 6.B Disclaimer for use when staff member requests travel of an infant

The following disclaimer is to be signed by staff members travelling with their infant:

"I acknowledge and agree that WHO does not assume any responsibility whatsoever for any injury, accident, illness, death or damages, sustained by or in relation to my infant [name], or third-party liability caused by my infant, arising during, as a result of, or in connection with, my travel for WHO with my infant. I take full and sole responsibility for any such risks, including, but not limited to, the cost of medical expenses that would in any event (regardless of my travel for WHO with my infant) not be covered by the Staff Health Insurance."

"I acknowledge and agree that the provision by WHO of an accident insurance covering myself and my infant during the aforesaid travel is without any prejudice to the foregoing and cannot be in any way taken as any acceptance by WHO of any responsibility for any accident or illness incurred by my infant during or in relation to travel."
