

World Health Organization
COVID-19
Guidance regarding the WHO Internship Programme

Current status at 16 December 2020:

During the current circumstances related to COVID-19, the recruitment of interns continues to remain suspended until further notice.

The situation is currently being monitored to determine the approach for internships in 2021.